Almost Rare

A native bird once present in numbers sufficient to darken the sky has been reduced to numbers that scarcely permit an open season anymore. Last week-end saw the usual two-day season on sage grouse, more commonly known as sage hens and sometimes as just sage chickens. The hunt wasn't exactly a howling success with reports ranging all the way from hunters getting their lungs limits in a hurry to those who didn't even see a bird. Checking station reports showed the average bag was .77 of a bird-per-hunter.

That's a far cry from the pioneer days when there were literally tens of thousands of the birds in this area. The sage grouse, of course, is a victim of civilization. As land was cleared and his natural habitat was destroyed, the sage grouse just disappeared. The fact the bird isn't a particularly difficult target for a hunter hastened the process.

The bird does thrive in certain isolated desert areas today, but those areas are so isolated that many long-time residents of Magic Valley have never seen a sage grouse. Bird lovers have no reason to start a clamor to safeguard the sagehen from extinction. Although the bird is found in greatly diminished numbers and much more scarce than formerly, he'll probably be around for a good many years. Moreover, with experts keeping a close watch on sage grouse habitat, reproduction, numbers and location, hunters can expect short seasons for the foreseeable future.

Sage grouse do not appear to be in any immediate danger of following the buffalo into oblivion except for a few parks and showplaces.

BIG-EIGHT?

News stories indicate quite strongly of a new alignment of West Coast colleges for athletic competition. For many years, the old Pacific Coast conference was one of the top college leagues in the nation, but it finally dissolved in bitter exchanges, chiefly concerning practices of recruiting athletes. The old conference had accumulated other headaches along the way and there were other factors that led finally to the end of the conference.

The University of Idaho was a member of the Pacific Coast conference when it ended. Some Idaho alumni might disagree, but getting out of the Coast conference was one of the things that ever happened to Idaho. Although Idaho managed to hold its own in basketball, it was hopelessly outclassed by the other Coast conference schools in all other sports. With the sort of athletic recruitment common to colleges today, Idaho wouldn't be able to keep up with the big Coast colleges.

Although Idaho may have been one of several factors in the dissolution of the Coast conference, it was by no means the deciding factor. Montana was a member of the Coast conference for many years, too, but when the conference wanted to drop Montana, it didn't have to split up to accomplish that goal.

The new alignment of Coast colleges and universities will be much the same as the old Pacific Coast conference except it won't include Idaho. The two schools up for admission now are the University of Oregon and Oregon State. That will give the four big California colleges, the two in Washington and two in Oregon a natural association.

It is to be hoped the executives charged with organization will come up with something more meaningful than "Big Eight" as a name for the conference. Even returning to Pacific Coast conference would be preferable.

There are all sort of leagues and conferences dealing with the number of conference members. The location of the new league suggests a name that would be distinctive. Why not something like Sunset conference?

SOUTHERN BELLES

Those who follow the Miss America contest have been impressed in recent years by the number of southern belles who have won the title. When Miss Mississippi won the title two years in a row, there were some questions. Then Miss Ohio came through to win the 1963 title. But the 1964 title returned to the South in the person of Miss Arkansas.

Perhaps the South doesn't have any particular corner on feminine beauty, but the southern belle seem to have a certain something that attracts the attention of judges at the Miss America contest.

That's an close an analysis should come to analyzing the situation. Any closer analysis might be an admission that girls from the South are more beautiful or more talented than girls from the North or West. And what red-blooded Westerner would (or dare) to make such an admission?

NATIONAL

WHORLIG

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Isaiah Walton used to say that "God never did make a more calm, quiet, innocent recreation than angling." But that was because he was a fisherman. Now, however, he is a fisherman's son.

Congress, which has the Russians on its mind most of the time, is very much afraid that a fishing innocent about fishing when it is done by Nikita Khrushchev's comrades. Khrushchev, it is expected to visit the United States to lead these Russian fishermen at a safe distance from American shores.

Andrew Tapp, at any rate, the senate commerce committee has approved unanimously a bill prohibiting foreign fishing vessels from operating in territorial waters of the U.S. and Gen. Warren Magnuson, D. Wash., chairman of the committee, says he hopes President Kennedy will extend the limit of territorial waters from three miles to 12 or 15 miles. Indeed, the committee report would make foreign fishing operations unlawful in the waters of the continental shelf, which extends as far as 180 miles into the Atlantic off the coast of Massachusetts.

SPY FLEET—There is no likelihood that Kennedy will go quite that far, but it is known he looks with considerable favor on the bill because of evidence of electronic surveillance and other spying-like activities by Russian trawlers. Besides, it was a presidential relative named Tapp, representing Massachusetts, to choose the name, who sounded the alarm when 100 Soviet trawlers with electronic equipment were discovered lurking off the coast of the Bay State.

But, demands of Khrushchev aside, the senate bill is long overdue. A house armed services investigation committee reported recently that the Russian navy could be landing or picking up spies or saboteurs or smuggling military items. And Magnuson has noted that some of the trawlers have been seen also oceanographers trawling, charting the ocean and the U.S. coastline.

NO PENALTIES NOW—In this era of scientific fraud, scientists aboard fishing boats can be of great value to the military. They can explore ways or interfering with the electronic equipment of submarines and rockets. They can also obtain information needed for submarine warfare. And their electronic gadgets can pick up all kinds of technical intelligence on our military.

Present law provides no penalties for encroachment on U.S. territorial waters by foreign fishing vessels. The bill would fix that. If boats, but the proposed law would fix that. If boats, but the proposed law would fix that. If boats, but the proposed law would fix that.

OUR MURDER-NARROW—Nor can it be charged Uncle Sam is unwise in protecting fishing operations within 200 miles of their coastline, and some 40 others have a 12-mile limit. Magnuson feels that should be the trend. "We might want to keep up with the Joneses," he says, "but we may be forced to."

Isaiah Walton, of course, would like it. But unfortunately, his little clock-and-dagger sauce with his mackerel.

Views of Others

WEST-EGGS OF LITTER
The psychological processes of litterbugs and other despilers of wilderness campgrounds, forests and streams may need more study.

Members of the Sierra Club, the conservation club, took a week each year in high, wild places cleaning up the litter left by others. Recently, a group packed three tons of tin cans, foil, glass, plastic and other trash into a truck and hauled it to the Sierra Club's pack animals. During the trip, a no longer advocated, because it doesn't play buried trash, even a "clean camper" respond to the suggestive attitude of tossing their tin cans and bottles into heaps of the same left by previous campers. This new attitude makes the problem more difficult. What about the Sierra Club cleanup program? If someone is going to do the dirty work, will campers be more inclined to litter?

Also, the Sierra club looks favorably upon the establishment of a federal "conservation corps" to help with the cleanup. As well as a conservation corps. But if campers and hikers know that a paid or volunteer auxiliary corps is to follow them about to clean up their messes, won't they be disposed against doing it themselves?

The answerers are elusive. Those who feel strongly about littering the value of nature, they mean it more to them than clean up after others less appreciative. Perhaps the best that can be expected, as far as the litterbug is concerned, is that the Sierra Club's dedicated and dedicated volunteers as members of the Sierra club will have an educational value. But what makes a litterbug the wilderness he takes so much trouble to seek out? It beats us. —The Oregonian

HELPING THEM GET 'OUT OF ROCK'
The "Bible" in Britain has been exported from the United States to France, Italy, and the Soviet Union. But it has its shortcomings in the country of its greatest devotion.

Two many Americans have got into debt beyond their credit by the device, increasing numbers of them over recent years have resorted to personal bankruptcy proceedings to get a new start. About with a clouded credit rating, financial executives are concerned over this trend. In California, U. S. Bankruptcy Court has established a counseling service which since has been the cooperation of other loan officers, credit counselors, and credit counselors. It is the hope of those who get into financial difficulties have done so through misfortune rather than poor judgment or design and with the way out if given the proper advice by counseling service and delaying payments that opportunity is given.

A similar service in Phoenix, Ariz., has proved its usefulness and has been organized in several other cities. This is a useful, productive service to borrowers and lenders and it is excellent for the credit rating of the borrower. Christian Science Monitor.

MAJOR MOVING DRIVERS
Although evidence is spread for existing conditions is a principal cause of vehicular accidents, show-pole drivers can create hazards on high-speed highways. The California Highway Patrol has issued a California appeals court decision which said that the driver of a slow-moving vehicle was guilty of contributory negligence when his car was hit from behind.

"The very result to be anticipated from driving 10 to 15 miles an hour on a highway is just what happened to the car collided with a slow car," the court said.

Mitigation appeals are presented for expressway drivers who don't want to go to jail for that fast they should stay off the road. Rockford (Ill.) Register Republic.

POT SHOTS

TESTIMONY DEPT.
Pot Shots: We certainly missed you when your column was omitted from the paper. We thought those who object to rats had really seen you to the dogs.

Let me tell them, a poor little mutt with no color can suffer just as much as a registered dog. Fots thinks of the animals, not of the people. He's a little bit of a discrimination between color. Open your heart to love for all helpless creature, makes no difference if it's man or beast.

It's only selfish, hard-hearted people who object to helping the helpless or would toss a bunch of kittens or pups out in the brush or along a highway where the cars will kill them. Please, people, don't dispose of them that way. I have found them so hungry they'd try to eat milk as if it were meat. You try it. Friends and he is keeping many a creature from a horrible, suffering death. Keep right on, Pot.

Becky of Buhl
Dear Sir: In reply to the inquiry regarding a dog hospital in Magic Valley, there is a dog hospital in Shoshone, Idaho, called "The Dog House." The mailing address is Box 414, Shoshone, and the telephone number is 886-2203.

POSSIBLE, MAYBE
Dear Sir: I appeal to you to use whatever influence you have (Pot-Shots note: It's all to get the United States to drop this crazy plan of sending a man to the moon).

If there were positive evidence the moon is, indeed, made from green cheese, there would be no reason for such a project. But there is no such proof.

And if we go sending a man to the moon, it's just possible the moon is made of green cheese. I would like to see the moon to fall out of the sky, and then where'd we be?

No harvest moon, no June moon, etc., etc.

KITTENS FOR KIDS DEPT.
Dear Sir: I would like to take advantage of your fine services to find homes for five kittens and a mother cat. The kittens are black and white, mostly black, some long-haired. One is a strange-looking white kitten like the mother. She is a small, unsocial cat, gentle and an excellent mother. She and the kittens do not have to go together. Kittens are available in Avon, Midland, Augusta, and a Penix, which gives a clue to their personalities.

OUR BULLETIN BOARD
I, Object, Twin Falls. You thought I was a person from the government who was objecting to your never hesitates to say anything whatsoever and never says anything unkindly. If you don't have the permission to object over your own signature, then you should simply consider the matter and stop writing anonymous letters. Thanks, anyway.

FAMOUS LAST LINE
If you're prepared for me eventually, then you're not going to be disappointed unless nothing happens.

COVERING THE CAPITAL WITH PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (NEA).—Nearly all of the political life before the U.S. general assembly this year are holdovers.

Thirteen years after the United Nations took the United Nations to give the U.S. a peace-keeping operation in Korea, it is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

In the past, Soviet Russia and North Korea have been summoned to the U.N. to give the U.S. a peace-keeping operation in Korea, it is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

Two years ago the United States made a decision to accept U.N. decision on their country's future. The U.S. is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

Perhaps the greatest contribution to the U.N. has been made this year by the U.S. military. The U.S. military has been summoned to the U.N. to give the U.S. a peace-keeping operation in Korea, it is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

By suppressing minorities and jailing his principal opponents, the president of the U.S. has shown his determination to hang onto power, regardless of the consequences. The U.S. is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

The United States is trying to solve the Vietnam problem by sending a political issue, presented as a matter of persecution of the Buddhists, which Ceylon and other countries want to make it.

Up to now there is no indication the Viet Nam situation will be solved. The U.S. is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

Other international political disputes and threats to peace in the U.S. are being handled by the U.S. military. The U.S. is still on the agenda on the agenda with no better prospects for solution.

Chrysler to Display New Lines Friday

The 1964 Valiant, Plymouth and Chrysler will be on show at the Valley Chrysler dealers Friday and the Imperials will be on show Saturday.

The Chrysler corporation is offering a line from the compact Valiant to the high styled Imperial.

In the new Valiant, which has been increased two inches in overall length, a 160-hp. four-cylinder engine has been added. The Valiant has a vinyl roof in either white or black.

The new Plymouth, according to performance and styling, has a two-door hardtop whose 12-in. aluminum roof line gives it a distinctive appearance.

For enthusiasts, Plymouth is introducing a new 426 cubic-inch engine suitable for street use. The engine, a modified version of the Super Six 426, is complemented by a four-speed manual transmission for sports-minded stick-shifters.

The Chrysler lines this year have two new personalized touches.

The New Yorker Sedan, in which all equipment and accessories including a reclining seat and head rest that were added last year, now has them as standard equipment.

The motorist will have only to select a color, interior upholstery, limited slip differential or whether he wants a new even-position adjustable steering wheel.

A second model offered by Chrysler is a convertible in the 1964 version of the Dodge high performance cars and has been added to the new hardtop sports car series.

Dionne Quintuplets' Father Says Magazine Story Untrue

Dodge Lines Due in T. F. Showrooms

The 1964 Dodge, Dart, Dodge 800 and Dodge trucks will arrive in Magic Valley showrooms Friday.

The "Golden Anniversary" Dodge—will feature body improvements in all 42 different models to give greater comfort, safety and convenience. Power plant options, ranging from two economy six-cylinder engines to six V-8s have been redesigned to provide greater efficiency, fuel economy and smooth performance.

A four-speed full-synchrom manual transmission will be available and improved four-wheel drive three-speed automatic transmission also is offered in all the new Dodge models.

New appearance, size and competitive performance, with proven fuel economy should place the Dodge in a strong market position. A new interior maintains the rich appearance and body engineering improvements will afford greater safety, comfort and convenience.

A three-inch gain in width of the back window improves rear visibility and all 42 different hatch and stronger mechanisms, improved sealing for convertible tops and a tail gate window safety device for stationwagons are among numerous other new features.

Chassis improvements bring gains in economy, starting reliability and transmission durability and an increased compression ratio adds to the economy. A new automatic choke and lighter refinements give better ignition starting in all weather.

The Dart offers nine different models in three series: Dart 170, Dart 270 and Dart 370. The 170-cubic-inch, six-cylinder engine is standard and the 275-cubic-inch, six-cylinder engine is optional power package. The compression ratio in the standard model has been increased from 8.2 to 8.8 and to 8.4 in the optional.

A different optional and a four-speed manual transmission, floor mounted also are available in the Dart.

Styling in the new Dodge has been changed, with wide horizontal bumper, prominent grille lights and the textured grille in the front end. The horizontal styling theme is carried rearward through the interior and to the wider-than-usual bumper, rectangular tail light housings and wide flat deck.

A new angle to the windshield, together with rear window glass, wide sport, emphasize the Dodge styling changes. New body cloths and vinyls are used in the color-keyed interiors. A convertible type roof adds a new sporty appearance to all Dodge two-door hardtops.

All Dodges are longer and there are seven body styles with a total of 24 models in three series: 330, 440 and Polara.

Dodge standard engines are the 218-cubic-inch V-8 and the 225-cubic-inch six-cylinder mill. A 335-cubic-inch and a 440-cubic-inch option engines have been added to the line. A new four-speed, floor-mounted transmission is available on all models and the Polara 500 sports models have bucket seats.

An entirely new rear end treatment centering on broad tail lamps stresses a bold rear appearance of the new Dodge 800. There is a new grille and a unique back window, along with rich modern interior fabrics and designs.

Main improvements are in starting reliability, drive-train components and controls along with crankcase ventilation, engine refinements, new automatic brakes, spark plug cable assemblies, increased splash protection and bigger batteries.

In the medium-priced 800 series, there are nine models offered—a four-door sedan, a passenger stationwagon and a four-door hardtop. The 440 series has a two-door Dodge four-door hardtop, four-door sedan, convertible, six-passenger

Influenza Vaccinations Are Advised

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—The U.S. public health service today urged persons in "high risk" groups to get vaccinated against influenza immediately.

They said no widespread outbreaks of influenza, such as those of the last few years, were expected this year. But he said sporadic outbreaks can be expected and urged inoculations for all persons who might suffer severe illness or death if they contract the disease.

Influenza is particularly dangerous to persons suffering from chronic ailments such as cardiovascular, pulmonary, renal, and metabolic disorders and to pregnant women. Persons over 65, particularly those over 85, also should be vaccinated, Dr. Terry said.

Long experience proves that these groups run the greatest risk of severe illness or death if they contract influenza, he said. There were widespread outbreaks of Asian flu everywhere in the country except on the West Coast last winter.

There was a nationwide epidemic of type B influenza in 1960-61. Because the two types commonly occur in several year cycles, which give protection, so it is important that the individual be vaccinated well before exposure to the virus.

Terry said the vaccine for this coming winter has been modified to give greater protection against the changing strains of both Asian and type B influenza.

Persons who have been vaccinated since 1957 need only one additional dose, Terry said. Those without vaccinations since 1957 should have two doses, one month apart, with the final dose coming before mid-December.

But he said immunization should begin right away and be completed by mid-December. There is a two-week delay in development of the anti-bodies which give protection, so it is important that the individual be vaccinated well before exposure to the virus.

Moyle's Post Could Be Filled Soon

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 19 (AP)—A successor may be named in early October to replace President Henry D. Moyle of the first presidency of the LDS church, who died Wednesday.

President Moyle, 74, was first counselor in the first presidency, a prominent business and civic leader, and in charge of the vast missionary system of the Mormon church.

Church authorities predict a successor will be named during or before the semi-annual conference of the church Oct. 4-6 in Salt Lake City.

Actually, Moyle's death has created two vacancies in the church hierarchy, since almost without exception counselors in the first presidency are chosen from the Council of Twelve Apostles.

It is likely President David O. McKay will announce President Moyle's successor and the new member of the Council of Twelve Apostles during conference.

Meanwhile, civic and business leaders joined with church authorities in praising the life of the late, great Mormon.

Russ Says They Only Have Training Groups in Cuba

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—A congressman just back from the Soviet Union said today the Russians claim they have no combat troops only training groups left in Cuba.

Rep. Robert R. Barry, R., N.Y., member of the House Foreign Affairs committee, said he was told this by Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Russia's first deputy foreign minister, during a round of talks in Moscow recently.

Barry went to the Soviet Union, Finland, Hungary, Germany, Austria and Britain on a three-week mission to "probe" what the next step for peace might be after the nuclear test ban treaty.

He outlined his findings in an interview with United Press International.

The congressman said Kuznetsov told him the Russians have only "training" cadres in Cuba, the same as you (Americans) have in Turkey—but only half as many.

Barry said Kuznetsov was "astounded" when the legislator told him he thought the American people would be willing to go to war if the Russians did not get out of Cuba. Barry said he cited a poll of his own congressional district of Westchester County, N.Y., to prove his point. The poll showed 70 per cent favored such action.

Nation Watches Oklahoma Reaction in Reapportionment Test

(Editor's note) A three-judge federal court's order reapportioning the Oklahoma legislature on a population basis to the most favorable ruling ever handed down by a federal court in that subject. How will it affect Oklahoma government if it is upheld by the U.S. supreme court, a step which would have national implications? Harry Culver, national representative and legislative director for United Press International in Oklahoma City, analyzes the order.

By HARRY CULVER
United Press International
OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—A farm editor calls it "a tragedy to the rural people of Oklahoma." A metropolitan paper says "it helps fulfill the American dream of true equity."

These are typical opposing views of a three-judge federal court's decision that has toppled the 50-year-old rural power structure of Oklahoma's "area" legislature and changed it to one based on population.

If the U.S. supreme court lets the opinion stand how will it affect the nation's 46th state? Almost everyone agrees there will be a change that cities will have more say than a greater share of state tax revenue will go to populous areas. But predictions of how much, how soon and how harmful or beneficial depends on who is talking.

At present, districts with less than one-fourth of the population elect a majority in the senate, less than one-third a majority in the house. The federal court order of July 17 will permit districts with 40 per cent to elect a majority in the senate, 42 per cent a majority in the house.

The court placed both houses substantially upon population. The federal court has gone so far in any other state. It gave some credit to area in the house.

Oklahoma and Tulsa counties contain the state's two largest cities, Oklahoma City and Tulsa. Combined they have about one-third of the population. They will have about one-third of the representation in the reapportioned legislature. They now have less than five per cent in the senate, 12 per cent in the house.

Rural legislators have made here a key factor in distribution of state revenues, selection of state boards, schools, highway building, county administration and virtually every field of government. They want to keep it that way. City residents want change.

Most appointments by the governor require confirmation by a rural-dominated senate. The legislature determines salaries as well as salaries for state supreme court judges. Twelve of the 19 members of the legislature are from one-third of the population.

12.8 per cent, nominate a five-man majority of the nine-member court. At election time, these judges must answer to predominantly rural opinion.

Nearly three-fourths of the people live in cities. Last year the state collected 117 million dollars in road user taxes. Cities were given 39 per cent of it for streets and alleys. Of the remainder, 31 per cent went to the state highway department, 21.2 per cent to county commissions, the rest elsewhere.

Rural mileage is a key factor in distributing state funds to county commissions for roads. As cities in metropolitan counties become larger, their highway needs increase. But under the formula growth entices these counties to get less money.

277,000 to 557,000. A congressional bill most responsive to the smaller counties to stay in office.

State liquor revenue is apportioned to counties for distribution to cities on a 50-50 formula based on a county's population and acreage. Chautauque county, population 4,406, in the thinly settled Oklahoma panhandle, received $628 per capita in state liquor taxes last year. Oklahoma county with 42,508 and Tulsa with 346,000 each got 45 cents per capita.

Cities and towns complain they are working for revenue County-wide ad valorem taxes are distributed among cities, counties and schools by county estate boards. Cities nearly always get the smallest slice.

snuff on a rural senator's argument it was the "staff of life" in western Oklahoma.

When the legislature attempted to make it compulsory for high schools to teach world history and foreign languages, a powerful rural senator said: "Our boys and girls don't need to learn about foreign languages, John Caesar and that stuff." The bill died.

State Sen. Walt Allen, Chickasha, an attorney for anti-reapportionment forces, says the change will nibble state aid for schools, fewer funds for rural areas, increasing conflict between urban and rural forces and control by the big city areas. He charged Oklahoma and Tulsa counties will have "complete control" of the legislature. He said the federal court order "is a monkey's paw that would create complete chaos in Oklahoma government."

Mrs. Trimble Lutting, Oklahoma City legislative chairman for the Oklahoma Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA), says the new legislature will more nearly reflect the will of the majority of the people.

"As to a long range effect, will cities get everything they want? I don't think so," she said. "But let us say there will be a more sympathetic ear to problems of cities. And we can't help but see more legislation beneficial to cities because of sheer numbers."

Reapportionment foes plan to appeal to the U. S. supreme court. Unless the high court stays the ruling, it will take effect with the February, 1964, filing date for the next legislature. The court ordered state election boards to accept filings and conduct elections on the basis of the court-ordered districts. The Oklahoma case is different than most on one point. On the senate, the court merely ordered that the state follow its own constitution. On the house, it again ordered compliance with the state constitution, except for lifting the apportionment limit on populous counties.

Food for Americans

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Doctors and nutritionists caution parents that an adequate breakfast is vital to school-age children. Yet many of our 20 million teen-agers skip breakfast. Among the reasons: "I haven't time," and "I like sleeping up." Mrs. M. M. Wilcox, "I think I've solved part of the breakfast problem by using attractive paper plates and cups. My daughter pours milk and fruit juice into paper cups, puts food in colored paper bowls, and passes long napkins to eat well." Her daughter's favorite breakfast: orange juice, apple, banana on a roll and milk.

ORANGE JUICE SWIZZLE (1 serving)
1 cup chilled orange juice
1 can
1 teaspoon sugar

Combine all ingredients in a container with a tight lid. Cover and shake vigorously. Serve in 8-ounce paper cold drink cups. High school seniors, Calif. reports that 81 per cent of teenage girls, 30 per cent of the boys in her school skip breakfast. "Most of them say they never have time to sit down and eat. They are short-changing themselves by going without a basic breakfast of fruit juice, cereal

Houston Uses Late Rally to Top Reds 3-4

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19 (AP)—The Houston Astros got to Jim McElroy for four straight hits in the eighth to win 3-4.

Gooding, which dropped both its outings to Jerome and Buhl, figures to rebound against the cager but left Halley Wolverines at Halley Friday afternoon. This game will highlight Halley's homecoming festivities.

The Indians have had another week's practice to become acquainted with coach Charles Buser's formation offense after three years in the single wing.

The other league game will see the Glens Ferry Braves at Valley in what should be a toss-up. Valley is expected to have big Courtney Hornsback back, a 250-pound tackle who has been sitting out with an injured arm.

L.A. Nips Cards In 13th Inning To Sweep Series

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Los Angeles scored an unearned run in the 13th inning Wednesday night for a 6-5 victory that gave them a sweep of their crucial three-game series with St. Louis and shaved the Cardinals four games behind the National League leading Dodgers. The defeat left the Cardinals with an almost impossible task in trying to overhaul the front-running Dodgers. St. Louis is five games back in the loss column with only seven games remaining, four on the road. The Dodgers have nine games left at home.

FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOVEY

When the Idaho Falls Tigers drop out of the Southern Idaho conference this fall, they will leave the Twin Falls Bruins as the league's longest team.

The Tigers are a boisterous bunch, but the league to take part in a new alignment next year which will include Burley, Pocatello, and the Idaho Falls Tigers. Since the Southern Idaho conference was organized in 1939, Twin Falls has had only seven seasons of better than .500 success and two of them came in the last two years. In addition, they have lost two straight seasons, losing in 1959 to Pocatello 12-7 to mar an otherwise winning season, and again in 1961 when a 14-13 loss to Caldwell spoiled a perfect year.

The worst drubbing ever received by a Bruin team came in 1941 when the Pocatello Indians slaughtered Twin Falls 54-0. But proving it's a small world, and giving it a measure of revenge last year, St. Louis of the Pocatello club was a flashy halfback named Walt Kelly. Last year, Kelly was the Indian coach standing on the sidelines when the Bruins administered a 33-0 defeat and helped put the skins under Kelly's belt. He was fired last spring. This year also marks the worst Twin Falls has ever handled Pocatello.

Going into the 1962 conference, Twin Falls has been defeated by Burns and trails in that department 0-5. Idaho Falls is the only team Twin Falls has been able to handle competitively. The Bruins are in front of the Tigers 10-3 with one tie. In that series, Twin Falls has handled Idaho Falls twice, in 1950 it won 30-0 and in 1951 it won 33-0. Idaho Falls' biggest margin was a 30-0 victory over Burns in 1950. The Bruins almost have broken even with Caldwell, a team it led until Caldwell recited off seven straight victories from 1955 through 1960. In fact, the Bruins haven't mastered Caldwell since 1952 although there have been five ties, both under coach Paul Casey.

Caldwell's easiest victory came two years ago when it routed Twin Falls 52-13. Twin Falls' easiest game was in 1940 when the Bruins won 31-0. The most they've ever scored against Caldwell is 34 points, that coming in 1950.

Nampa, Boise and Pocatello lord it over Twin Falls in the west-loss column.

Nampa and Boise share the longest winning streak at the expense of Twin Falls, each having won nine straight times. Both were 100% through 1959. Nampa, sitting edgewise in defeat two years ago while Boise prolonged its with a pair of ties before bowing 13-14 last year.

The high water mark for Nampa came in 1957 with a 44-14 domination while Twin Falls' best in the 24-year history was last year's 24-0 score. The best a Bruin club ever scored against Nampa was 25-10 in 1951. This was a special win for the Bruins in that it marked the first time Nampa had bowed on its home field dedicated in 1949.

Boise once trampled Twin Falls 51-0 and got away with a light retribution of 22-0 and twice 21-0 on Twin Falls' turf.

The overall conference won-loss and points for, and against, include (Twin Falls figures first): Nampa, 7-17-1, 291-232; Boise, 7-13-2, 322-209; Caldwell, 10-13-1, 320-244; Pocatello, 10-17-2, 309-471; Idaho Falls, 10-14-1, 476-219; and Burns, 0-5, 71-140.

In some instances, the teams met twice during one season and at one time played a double-round-robin, which instinctively almost killed the conference. Therefore, the total won-loss-tie records do not add up to 24.

It would take the Bruins 21 straight games to get a .500 record and 10 straight wins to even up with Nampa, 11 with Boise.

It would take the Bruins 21 straight games to get a .500 record and 10 straight wins to even up with Nampa, 11 with Boise.

Since the Southern Idaho conference was organized in 1939, Twin Falls has had only seven seasons of better than .500 success and two of them came in the last two years. In addition, they have lost two straight seasons, losing in 1959 to Pocatello 12-7 to mar an otherwise winning season, and again in 1961 when a 14-13 loss to Caldwell spoiled a perfect year.

The worst drubbing ever received by a Bruin team came in 1941 when the Pocatello Indians slaughtered Twin Falls 54-0. But proving it's a small world, and giving it a measure of revenge last year, St. Louis of the Pocatello club was a flashy halfback named Walt Kelly. Last year, Kelly was the Indian coach standing on the sidelines when the Bruins administered a 33-0 defeat and helped put the skins under Kelly's belt. He was fired last spring. This year also marks the worst Twin Falls has ever handled Pocatello.

Going into the 1962 conference, Twin Falls has been defeated by Burns and trails in that department 0-5. Idaho Falls is the only team Twin Falls has been able to handle competitively. The Bruins are in front of the Tigers 10-3 with one tie. In that series, Twin Falls has handled Idaho Falls twice, in 1950 it won 30-0 and in 1951 it won 33-0. Idaho Falls' biggest margin was a 30-0 victory over Burns in 1950. The Bruins almost have broken even with Caldwell, a team it led until Caldwell recited off seven straight victories from 1955 through 1960. NEW FLYWEIGHT CHAMPION Hironaka Eshira, white trunks, wheels toward a neutral corner after sending Pone Kingpetch, Thailand, to the canvas for the second time in the first round Wednesday night. Japanese Is Flyweight Ring Champ

TOKYO, Sept. 19 (AP)—Hironaka Eshira, a 23-year-old Japanese who has been boxing professionally only four years, won the world flyweight title Wednesday night by knocking out defender Pone Kingpetch of Thailand in the first round.

The hard-hitting youngster dazed the 27-year-old champion in just two minutes and seven seconds of the 15-round bout. The once-beaten Eshira tore after Pone in the opening moments and soon floored him with a hard left to the face.

After Pone was given the mandatory eight count by Thai referee Bangkokian Hiranyalek, Eshira stormed after his stiff-necked rival. He battered him with a volley of lefts and rights and then dropped Pone for the full count with a solid left to the jaw.

Pone waved his arms weakly but was unable to get up. He was the second time Pone has lost the flyweight title, and he said he wanted another shot at it. He said the contract calls for a return bout.

"He caught me cold," said Pone. "I couldn't get set after the first knockdown. I made the decision to attack in the first round," said Eshira. "I was confident. I knew I could get him."

Olympic Group Switches U.S. Baseball Power

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—The board of directors of the United States Olympic committee for the United States Wednesday that American membership in the International Amateur Baseball Federation be severed from the U.S. Olympic committee to the U.S. Base.

reportedly met strenuous objection by National AAU members on the board, which concluded a two-day session of preparing proposals for the biennial meeting of the full U.S. Olympic committee in Washington Nov. 10-11.

The AAU holds certifying rights for most international athletic competitions, the bulk of which guards its membership in the U.S. Olympic committee. The AAU has no affiliation with amateur baseball.

At that time, the Olympic group obtained membership to assure U.S. baseball representation in Pan-American competition. This is not an Olympic sport. The AAU has no affiliation with amateur baseball.

"We have been paying our dues, but we don't run any sport, and we have been looking for an organization to take over this membership," said Art Lenz, Olympic assistant executive director.

However, AAU members of the Olympic board reportedly voiced heated objection to giving international stature to the U.S. Baseball Federation, losing in a majority vote which stated the recommendation to sever the U.S. Olympic committee from the U.S. Base.

The AAU board of directors apparently reflected AAU members' opposition to the move, which would take a foot in the door for the U.S. Olympic committee in the U.S. Base.

Eppe Barnes, College athletic director and former Pan-Am Games official, attended the board session as president of the U.S. Baseball Federation.

Barnes pointed out his committee's non-controversial nature, the schedule of the games, and the fact that the U.S. Olympic committee is not a U.S. team for a national championship.

Idaho to Have Full Strength For Opener

MOSCOW, Sept. 16 (AP)—With two more players expected to join the University of Idaho Vandal football team, the team is expected to be in full strength for its Friday night opener against Fresno State.

Five of the six players who transferred to the Vandal team last week have been released. The past week have been released are six were expected to be in uniform for the Saturday game against Fresno State.

Andrus had the Vandal's leading rushing yardage in the game against Fresno State. He had 100 yards on 20 carries and three touchdowns.

Released were guards Don Matthews and Jerry Campbell; tackle Cliff Foster; end back, Gary Peterson; and Dick Lister. Only player still in the lineup is tackle Jim Morris, who is expected to be in uniform Saturday.

The arrival of halfback Mike Scott, a fresh and a standard broken field runner in spring practice, boosted the Vandal roster to 59. Andrus said Andrus said a death in the family delayed the arrival of Scott.

Andrus said he still expected to start senior co-captain and two-year letterman Don Matthews and Lister, a defensive end, in Saturday's game.

Road Under Channel Eyed By Nations

LONDON, Sept. 19 (AP)—A group of British and French experts today recommended their governments build a tunnel under the English channel but warned that financing it may be difficult.

After a two-year study the British and French officials estimated the cost of a tunnel at 145 million pounds ($400,000,000).

They rejected an alternative suggestion of a bridge, saying it would cost twice as much and would be a serious hazard to shipping.

The plan calls for a 32-mile railway tunnel between Folkestone on the English side and Sangatte, a French village five miles west of Calais. It would take about six years to complete.

The experts suggest a joint venture by the British and French railways, both state-owned, or by the governments themselves.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP)—Thomson and McKinnon points out that the Dow-Jones industrial average still is marking time at around its opening level of last week.

The firm feels that if the inertia continues, investment managers, no matter how justified in their optimism, might become more aggressive in shifting funds from the more exposed groups to such laggards as steel, paper, tire and rubber, building, glass, tobacco, radio-television, food chain and apparel.

Leslie M. Pollack of Reynolds and company feels the market is moving into a period of healthy correction which should provide a good springboard for the next rise.

Standard and Poor's outlook feels the market may back and fill for a while as it digests the steep climb through the record high. The advisory and statistical service says while fundamental outlook is good, care in timing and selection is clearly needed.

Bache and company continues to believe the fundamental trend is upward but would not be adverse to some continued hesitation or even a correction at this point.

Graham Loving Jr. of Equity Research associates says that if his outlook is correct more stocks will decline than advance in the next few months but those which advance will have rapid runups as new money coming into the market concentrates on the remaining favorites.

Beat JFK!

KYLE, Tex., Sept. 19 (AP)—National politicians might be disturbed if they could hear pupils of Kyle high school chant "Beat JFK!" every time they change classes.

Actually, officials of the little Hays county school said Wednesday, the chant is an effort to stir up interest in Kyle's football game Saturday with John F. Kennedy high school, San Antonio.

Matching Kyle, a district with an enrollment of 80, against the 800-pupil San Antonio school makes the game of unusual interest.

Deaths in North Idaho Probed

CORVALLIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—The deaths of an elderly couple of Alene and woman whose bodies were found in a packed car, appeared to have been from natural causes and perhaps a double heart attack, the Corvallis sheriff's office said Thursday.

Henry Cook, 51 and Marie, 72, were found dead in a car parked on the old Heister chain, is reported improving at a Rose Point rest home in Downey, Calif., hospital where he was taken after contracting polio earlier this year.

The house and senate have passed conflicting versions of such a bill and neither side appears inclined to yield.

It is a copy of a similar one passed last year.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Sept. 19 (AP)—The air force today called off a search for the United States' first winged spacecraft, which apparently sank in the Atlantic ocean.

Officials decided after studying reports from Wednesday's 19-hour hunt that possibility of finding the 1100-pound payload was remote.

chairman of a house public works subcommittee which handles the legislation, said today he is not inclined to take the bill to a house-debate conference committee which would seek to draft a compromise measure.

The effect of this, he said, would be to give the senate the choice of accepting the house version or no bill at all.

The house bill would increase authorizations for projects with several river basins to permit construction of the affected projects.

turned to the house numerous objections were made to sending it to conference. The objective was that only affirmative action by the house rules committee can send the bill to conference.

Davis said he sees no point in taking the measure to conference since the house has indicated it does not want to authorize the seven disputed projects.

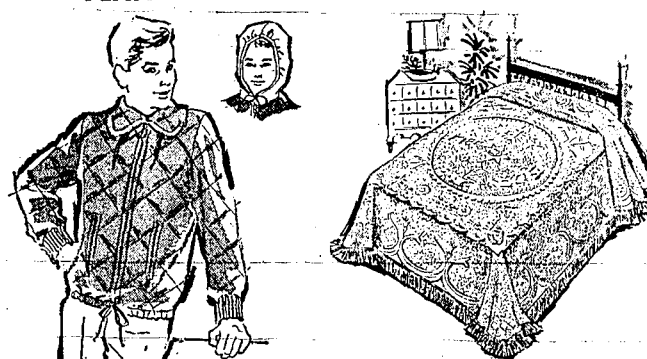

"If we went before the rules committee and asked that the bill go to conference," he said, "Chairman Howard Smith, D., FOR FAST-SELLING RESULTS

Val, would do what he did last year—exact a promise that the senate stand by the house bill and exact the disputed projects.

This, he said, would lead to another bitter conference struggle which he prefers to avoid.

Controversial projects authorized by the senate include: Knoxville, Tenn., flood ($50,000,000); Kansas City, Mo., flood ($12,000,000); and the house bill.

MOVE UP TO CHRYSLER '64

Engineered better...backed better than any car in its class

The '64 Chryslers are here: the luxurious New Yorker (above), sports-bred 300; and the surprisingly easy-to-own Newport.

Clean. Crisp. Handsome. Designed in the modern concept. Bold but not brassy. Engineered by men who have accounted for more "firsts" than any automobile maker. So well built the vital moving parts are warranted for 5 years or 50,000 miles. (Details below.)

The '64 Chryslers are full of news: there's an optional steering wheel you can adjust, up or down, to any one of seven different positions. Bucket seats are standard on 300 models (passenger's reclines).

These are the '64 Chryslers. They have no junior editions to compromise your investment. Go see them. Move up to Chrysler '64.

Solid protection for a solid investment... 8 years, 50,000-mile warranty. Chrysler Corporation warrants, for 8 years or 50,000 miles, who invests more than $100 million in research and development to make the most reliable cars in the world. Chrysler Corporation's 8-year, 50,000-mile warranty is the longest in the industry. It covers the engine, transmission, rear and front axles, including automatic shift, brakes, suspension, steering, wheels, tires, and all other parts, excluding wear and tear items. It also covers the cost of labor and materials for repairs. The warranty is void if the car is used for racing, is involved in an accident, or is damaged by fire, flood, or other causes. The warranty is not transferable. For details, see your Chrysler dealer or write to Chrysler Corporation, 300 North Dearborn, Detroit, Mich. 48216.

The total state tax levy, on building, ad valorem, teachers' retirement and teachers' social security, 1962-63, while the current county levy is set at 1.25 percent, is estimated at $2.23 per $100 valuation. Last year the county tax was $2.20.

Total state and county tax levies came to $3.43.

Special state levies include 400 for sheep commission fund; 50 for state land inspection; 50 for livestock disease control; 50 on honey advertising per colony and 50 for bee inspection per colony.

School levies include 4.15 total on maintenance and operations, facilities and bond for school district No. 312, Shoshone, and 3.55 for the same services for school district No. 312-42, Shoshone.

For Hefield school district No. 316, the levy is totaled at 2.55. For Dietrich, No. 314 3.95 and for Dietrich No. 314-12, 4.15. For students going to Gooding district the levy is set at 4.00 and for those going to Jerome district No. 261-J, it is 3.50.

City and village levies for the county include Rhoades, 3.75, taking in general, library, fire, recreation and street lighting. For Hefield the levy totals 3.40 per $100 valuation, and for Dietrich, 3.55.

All of the highway districts in the county have a levy of $1 per $100 valuation while there is a 10-cent levy for the Lincoln county fair district, and 50 cents for the Wood River fire protection district.
